PRINCETON 1915 HOLDS CLASS DAY

Closing Exercises Under Way -Bacon and Eggs for Dancers.

GUESTS PRESENT

PRINCETON, N. J., June 14.—The class day exercises of Princeton's graduating class were held to-day in the amphitheatre, which was built around the cannon on the central campus, where 2,000 people sweltered under a broiling

The keys of the university were formally tendered to Walker M. Ellis of New Orleans, La., the master of ceremonies, at the opening exercises this morning in Alexander Hall. President Hibben gave the keys on behalf of the university. Donald Wallace Carruthers minersity. Donald Wallace Carruthers delivered the class oration and George B. Logan, Jr., read the class poem. The fanting of the class ivy on Nassau Hall followed immediately and W. M. Ellis celvered the ivy oration.

The cannon exercises were held this fternoon. Joseph W. Bailey, Jr., of Washington, D. C., a son of former efternoon. Joseph W. Balley, Jr., of Washington, D. C., a son of former Senator Balley of Texas, delivered the Senator Bailey of Texas, delivered the presentation oration, in which he revealed to the fond parents present all the secret history of their sons' lives. Bailey himself did not escape and several of the recipients of his favor took the opportunity to go back at him. The class history was read by George F. Riegel of Germantown, Pa., and the class prophecy by G. R. Hanks. Howard Froelick of Brooklyn delivered the president's message to the class. The ceremony ended with all smoking their ceremony ended with all smoking their long clay pipes and then breaking them

There was one event of unusual in-

The gymnasium was most attractively decorated for the occasion in a scheme of blue and white, while the lighting was given by three large bronze globes. The list of patronesses and guests includes many people prominent in New York and Philadelphia society. Among those in attendance were the Misses Mary Chaplin, Marion and Esther Cleveland, Charlotte Strong, Carol Hackstaff, Mazie Branckerhoff, Dorothy Perkins, Grace Coigate, Katherine Olcott, Hazel Cross, Josephine DaGasdorf, Miss Esteller, Dorothy Hollister, Priscilla Barttons of the wages which she had earned.

William and Tirpitz:

William and Tirpitz:

William and Tirpitz:

William and Tirpitz:

Trade Union League, who will speak of Mrs. Stanton's labor for working women. One of the first appeals Mrs. Stanton addressed to the Legislature was in 1854 to secure the right of a married woman to the wages which she had earned. Dorothy Hollister, Priscilla Bart-Esther Auchincloss, Louise Hoad-Joy Williams, Natalie Bishop and Miss Farr, all of New York; Marianna Gowen, Margaret Schull, Hope Beale, Miss Brinker, Marion Savage, Katherine Diament, Arrean Miller, Katherine Register and Grace Jennings, all of Philasented With $10.

The patronesses were Mmes. John The patronesses were Mines. John Grier Hibben, George T. Emmons, Archibald Douglas Russell, Moses Taylor Pyne, W. F. Magie and William Libbey, all of Princeton; Pell William Foster, New York; N. P. Berrn, Jamai.a, L. I.; W. H. Donner, Buffalo; A. C. Oliphant, Trenton; G. W. Perkins of New York.

PRINCETON CUTS OUT CHAPEL.

Students, Trustees Announce. PRINCETON, N. J., June 14 .- The board trustees of Princeton voted to-day James Gear. that the compulsory attendance for un chapel be abolished. This move comes LAFAYETTE ELECTS DR. BECHT as the culmination of a serious and de tailed study of the religious life of the institution by a committee of the trustees, who reported that they thought the time was come for such action. In plans to make the service much more tractive and helpful for the students. The hour has been shifted from 8:15 to been ind 9:15, and good music will be rendered Cracken. every morning by the full choir. In addition to the devotions each morning there will be a brief address by some re, and the undergraduates have for the past year. made no protest against this regula-

RUTGERS ALUMNI CELEBRATE. Class Day Exercises Bring Many Old Grads.

New Brunswick, N. J., June 14.— Rutgers College class day exercises in connection with the 149th commence-This afternoon the alumni day parade

Was held and more than 500 undergrad on State street learning finance. It is uates and alumni participated, the mem-bers of each class wearing special cos-

PACKER GIRLS GRADUATED. Sixty-six Get Diplomas From President of Trustees Board. last night. Sixty-six were graduated. Frank L. Babbott, president of the board of trustees, presented the diplomas. The P. M. invocation was pronounced by the Rev. John Snyder Carlisle.

Miss Helen Farrington Parker was the valedictorian of her class. Essays were fead by Miss Natilie D. Miller, Miss Juliet M. Kalley and Miss Dorothy M.

Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Wallen. forge Sykes Wallen on Sunday after-

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Miss Nathalle Green of Narragan-

THE SEAGOERS.

ters, 48 East Thirty-fourth street, 3:30 P. M.—Fifth Assembly district, SUFFRAGE EVENTSTO-DAY Noon — Twenty-fifth Assembly dis-trict, Manhattan, outdoor meeting at Madison Square Park. Fifth Assembly district, Manhattan, meeting, at National Biscuit Company factory, Six-teenth street and Tenth avenue. 3 P. M.—German committee mee:-

5 P. M.—Press and publicity com-mittee of German committee meets at 303 Fifth avenue. Room 2001. 7 P. M .- Eleventh Assembly district Manhattan, canvassing bee starts from the home of Mrs. W. H. Wilson, 697

Brooklyn, club meeting at home of leader, Mrs. J. Whelan, 584 Decatur Ninth avenue.

7:30 P. M.—First Assembly district. Manhattan, canvassing squad starts from the home of Mrs. Della Penne-father, 40 Dominick street.

8 P. M .- Twenty-third Assembly district, outdoor meeting at 144th stree and Seventh avenue.

8:30 P. M .- Nineteenth Assembly district, Manhattan, outdoor meeting at Broadway and 110th street. Twenty-fifth Assembly district, meeting at Eighth avenue and Fourteenth street, 12:30 P. M.—Meeting at roving shop "Winner," Irving place and Fourteenth street.

1 P. M.-Twentieth Senatorial district, open air meeting, 102d street and Second avenue.

2 P. M.—Women's Political Union torch bearing tour: Mrs. H. O. Have-meyer, speaker, holds meeting at Troy. POLITICAL EQUALITY ASSOCIATION 8:30 P. M .- Outdoor meeting, Forty third street and Broadway

NEW STANTON FETE PLANS.

Suffragists Will Be Asked to Ob serve Centennial.

The first meeting of the executive committee of the general committee on the Elizabeth Cady Stanton centennial There was one event of unusual interest in connection with to-day's festivities. Clio Hall, one of the secret literary societies, celebrated the sesquicentennial of its founding. Frank S. Katzenbach, twice a Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, and Dean Andrew F. West of the graduate school were the speakers.

To-night over fifteen hundred guests strended the annual sophomore receptors. To have the speakers of the movement in America in the autumn.

Three meetings will be held in this State, one at Mrs. Stanton's birthplace.

Johnstown, Fulton county, New York,

To-night over fifteen hundred guests attended the annual sophomore reception and promenade in the gymnasium. Despite the terrific heat the dancers started on a programme of twenty-four dances and four extras which will probably keep them there until nearly 6 o'clock. An innovation is being tried this year in serving breakfast at the conclusion of the dance. The regular supper comes in the middle of the dance and at the end bacon and eggs will be cerved along with the customary coffee and rolls.

The gymnasium was most attractively decorated for the occasion in a scheme of the and white, while the lighting was to be and white while the lighting was the same of the early pupils of the Troy Seminary; a constant of the annual suffrage Alliance; a representative of Emma Willard Association, as Mrs. Stanton was one of the early pupils of the Troy Seminary; a constant of the annual suffrage and the convention of the dances and four extras which will probably seep them there until nearly 6 o'clock. An innovation is being tried this year in serving breakfast at the conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and at the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion of the dance and the end bacon and eggs will be conclusion first proposed that women the sentence of the early of the conclusion of the dance and the end dance and the end the end the dance and the end the end the end the end the end the end the e earned.

Ten dollars in gold will be presente Ten dollars in gold will be presented to Simon Peterson to-day at the school for recruits for gallantry in rescuing a dummy dressed as a woman, decorated with "Votes for Women," at the life saving exhibit on Riverside Drive Saturday afternoon. "Patsy Mulligan" as the dummy is called, is usually a man, the time was come for such action. In no way are they eliminating religious instruction from the campus, but they believe that the responsibility for the tary of the State Board of Education, cuse, N. Y., and Grace Angela Richthat the responsibility to the chapel service should be put on the undergraduates and the faculty.

Simultaneously the trustees announced ministrative duties of the college. It is a new office at Lafayette and is designed to carry out the new policies that have been inaugurated under President Mac-Dr. Becht is holding his acceptance under consideration. The board of trus-tees also elected Wilmer G. Crowell athletic director. Crowell has been coach of the football and baseball teams

MORGANS ARRIVE IN BOSTON. for To-day's Nuptials.

Boston, June 14.—J. P. Morgan's yacht Corsair anchored in the upper harbor late this afternoon, having come from New York with a family party for the wedding to-morrow of Junius Spenment began to-day in the gymnasium. The senior class president's address was delivered by Ralph T. B. Todd of Tarrytown, the class oration by Robert, W. Searle of New Brunswick and the class. The wedding to-morrow of January Commencement of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, and Miss Louise Converse. The guests will also attend the commencement exercises at Harvard. The wedding will take place in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Dedham at > reported that Mr. Morgan and his bride Corsair.

In New York To-day.

New York State Music Teachers Asociation, convention, Hetel McAlpin. Interborough Association of Wom The sixty-first annual commencement the Packer Collegiate School for Girls Joraiemon street, Brooklyn, was held st night. Sixtysix were graduated 13th street, 8 P. M. Safety First Society, meeting, City Club, 55 West Forty-fourth street, 8

National Security League, luncheon to delegates of the peace and prepara-tion conference, Hotel Astor, 12 M. Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, commencement exercises, Brooklyn Academy of Music, 8:15 P. M. Academy of Music, 8:15 P. M.

New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, commencement exercises, 3 P. M.

Dacker Collegiate Institute, Brooklyn, Mrs. Elizabeth Cudahy of Chicago, who dister families were guests.

Mrs. T. L. Steindle arrived here to-day from White Sulphur Springs, dister families were guests.

Mrs. T. L. Steindle arrived here to-day from White Sulphur Springs, dister families were guests.

Plays and Players.

Lucile Watson has been engaged by Selwyn & Co. to play an important part in Avery Hopwood's new farce "The Mystlic Shrine." which will have its pre-

William and Tirpitz: "Is this what Mr. Bryan refused to sign? We thought he was for peace."

AT SMITH COLLEGE

Seniors, All in White, Are Led No Formal Announcement of Not Ill, but Doctor Advises by Miss Dulles of New York City.

Syracuse, N. Y., and Dorothy Putnam of Waban, Mass., as head marshals preceded the procession.

Immediately in front of the senior lines walked Mary McMillan of Syra- Society. mond of Little Compton, R. I. The junior lines were led by Amy Umbstaetter of Boston, Mass., and Amy Louise Cowing of Wyoming, Ohio. During the ceremony of planting the ivy on the music by Helen Sedgwick Jones of New Hartford, Conn.

president of the senior class, delivered the | week. president of the senior class, delivered the speech of welcome. "A Rose" was sung by the Glee Club seniors. The words of this song were written by Helen Violette Tooker of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the music by Ruth Bartholomew of New York city. "College Humor and the College Glergle" was written and Activ.

of Closter, N. J.

The closing concert by the students of the department of music, the Smith College Symphony Orchestra and the Gleck this afternoon. Louise Balcom of Brooklyn, N. Y., played Chopin's "Fantasie," F minor, opus 49. Helen Safford of Glens Falls, N. Y., Esther Root of New York city, and Mary Tanner of Groton, N. Y., also participated in the exer-N. Y., also participated in the exer-President Burton gave a reception this evening.

HOT SPRINGS COTTAGES OPEN.

Many Will Pass Summer in Virdays, will rejoin her sister, Mrs. Vincent Walsh, here the last of the week. Judge Cahill has returned to Chicago

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

SIDNEY FISH TO WED MISS OLGA WIBORG

Engagement Because of Mrs. Fish's Death.

for recruits for galiantry in rescuing a dummy dressed as a woman, decorated with "Yotes for Women," at the life with "Yotes for Women," at the life with "Yotes for Women," at the life with "Olga Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith College by day exercises took with "Olga Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olga Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith College by day exercises took with "Yotes for Women," at the life with "Y and walked on either side of the two Wiborg finished her education in Lon-senior lines. Harriet Duguid Dey of don and returned to New York in the Bishop John J. Collins, former rector to Be Married.

northwest front of the library the ivy song was sung. The words of the ivy song were written by Eva Bryant Adams of Northampton, Mass., and the Miss Ann Wentworth Sheafe, to Ben-Miss Ann Wentworth Sheafe, to Ben-Jamin Edwards Cole 2d, son of Edward

The indoor try day exercises took place in John M. Greene Hall at 11 A. M. The organ processional, written by Sophic Pauline Gibling of New York city, was among the Boston players in the annual played by Evelyn Odlin of Arcadia, tournament for the women's national Fla. Dorothy Dulles of New York city, tennis championship in Philadelphia last ords W. W. Coc. Jr., to Wed English Girl.

BOSTON, June 14.-Wesley W. Coe. New York city. "College Humor and the College Giggie" was written and delivered by Ellen Veronica McLoughlin of Utica, N. Y. The ivy oration was delivered by Katherine Rowland Vermilye of Closter, N. J.

The closing concert by the students of croft, golf champion of Great Britation. croft, golf champion of Great Britain in

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Nathan of 127 West Seventy-fourth street have an-nounced the engagement of their daugh-ter, Miss Rosalle Gomez Nathan, to KNAPP-CONNARD.

Daughter of the Late George F. Baer Married in Reading.

Hor Springs, Va., June 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Bright of New Orleans have opened their summer place here, Mrs. Calderon Carlisle of Washington will open her cottage this week. Mrs. Tinker of New Orleans, who passed the winter in New York, has gone from Vipa

Hyde-Lambden.

New Rochette, N. Y., June 14.—Miss Melvina Howell Lambden, a daughter of Edward Lambden and granddaughter of Joseph Lambden of an old Huguenot family, was married to-night to Herbert Anderson Hyde, a son of Willard D. Hyde, in the Salem Baptist Church, New Rochelle, by the Rev. Tillman B. John-

HEAT KEEPS CARDINAL AWAY FROM FORDHAM

Him to Stay Indoors-Degrees Conferred.

winorg unished her education in London and returned to New York in the autumn of the year 1913.

Mr. Fish, the youngest of three children, was graduated from Harvard in 1908. He is a member of the Union, Knickerbocker, Racquet and Meadow Brook clubs and the St. Nicholas Society.

COLE-SHEAFE ENGAGEMENT.

Woman Tennis Player of Boston Is to Be Married.

Winorg unished her education in London and returned to New York in the domain returned to New York in the autumn of the year 1913.

Bishop John J Collins, former rector which he possessed the most complete giorance until he went there, that he has bought the house in which he is shooled in the degree of doctor of letters in 1908.

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 14.—Miss Maggie A. Clark, a teacher in the public schools of this city for forty-seven years, of spending every summer there. He is the did or of the Catholic World. The deducator, journalist and lecturer, He is the editor of the Catholic World. The degree of master of arts was awarded to John A. Killian, B. A., of Philadelphia, who is taking not only a course in arts at Fordham but also a course in pure science at Columbia, where he of the autumn of the year 1913.

Bishop John J Collins, former rector which he country, of which he possessed the most complete which he is the with life in the country, of which he possessed the most complete which he is the with the country, of which he possessed the most complete the most complete the most complete the most complete the series of the science in the public schools of this city for forty-seven years, of spending every summer there. He is much he gave $33.672 to his wife, Fanny, and left $65,748 to his son Sidney H. Elizabeth, N. J., June 14.—Miss Maggie A. Clark, a teacher in the public schools of this city for forty-seven years, of spending every summer there. He is much himpose the most complete the most complete the series of the science at St. Society.

Colle-SHEAFE ENGAGEMENT.

Woman Tennis Player of Boston Is in the country, of which country, of which country o receive the degree of Ph. B. next. The Rev. William H. Ketcham. superintendent of the Catholic Indian science and one master of arts diplomas. Addresses were made by Justice Victor J. Dowling. Father Muiry and three members of the graduating class—Walter J. Lynch, Edward R. Moon and Edward M. Petowski, the valedictorian. Harry Kane, captain of the baseball team, who is suffering from a broken It is still to the topic of opera that

The Hughes medal for oratory was tenderly debating medal.

In the morning the alumni tennis team lost to the varsity, but in the afternoon In the morning the alumni terms team lost to the varsity, but in the afternoon the alumni baseball players defeated the senior class team. The commence-Henry S. Hendricks, a son of the late Edgar Hendricks. No date has been set for the wedding.

THREE STARS AT PALACE.

Florence Rockwell, Irene Franklin and Wilton Lackaye Appear.

Three stars, Wilton Lackaye, Florence Rockwell and Frene Franklin, appeared at the Paffice Theatre yesterday heading this week's vaudeville bill. Mr. Lackaye stepped from the role of Personnel.

Tastor Personnel.

Seengali in the recent production of the control of the was naturally excitement when the word reached Broadway that Ned Wayburn was going to import six cows for the new Century Theatre. Mrs. Calgeron ber cottage this week. Mrs. of the Second Reformed Church, perwill open her cottage this week. Mrs. of the Second Reformed Church, perTinker of New Orleans, who passed the winter in New York, has gone from Vine Cottage to her summer home, near the Cott a nlece, Georgianna Cox of Wilmington, Del., were the flower girls. John Knapp, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Only members of the immediate families were guests.

Called The Warrick Williams. Miss Stone and Warrick Wil

HAVE OWN THEATRE Is to Open Repertoire Playhouse Here Next Season on

MISS ANGLIN WILL

Chicago Capital.

BARKER WON'T RETURN

Granville Barker, who closed his season of Greek plays at Princeton on Saturday, will not have his repertoire theaturday, will not have his country at all next winter until January, when he will make a lecture tour in the large cities. Although the Shuberts will book "Androcles and the Lion" in their theatres Miss McCarthy, who is Mrs. Barker in private life, will not be a member of the company.

Buren was United States Consul-General to that country from 1874 to 1885.

In 1886 Mr. Van Buren was graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale. After travelling abroad for a year he became American representative for large silk importing interests, having his headquarters in Boston. Most of his business interests were in that country from 1874 to 1885.

In 1886 Mr. Van Buren was graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale. After travelling abroad for a year he became American representative for large silk importing interests, having his headquarters in Boston. Most of his business interests were in that cluy.

Mr. Van Buren was graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale. After travelling abroad for a year he became American representative for large silk importing interests, having his headquarters in Boston. Most of his business interests were in that country from 1874 to 1885.

Mr. Van Buren was graduated from the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale. After travelling abroad for a year he became American representative for the Burdy having his headquarters in Boston. Most of his business interests were in too to the twenty-seventh of the ballroom of the United States Consultance in the twenty-seventh of the twenty-seventh of the twenty-seventh of the Burdy having his h Only one thing stood between the half dozen men who were willing to back the Professor Emeritus of Harvard scheme and Mr. Barker. He was unwilling to divide his profits on the road willing to divide his profits on the road with the directors of the New York theatre. So on this rock the enterprise was wrecked. The season at Wallack's tus of contagious diseases at the Hartheatre. So on this rock the enterprise twas wrecked. The season at Wallack's tus of contagious diseases at the Harward Medical School and formerly superintendent of the Boston City Hostrancisco.

Albert—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hills and Mrs. H.

There is, however, to be a new repertoire theatre opened in New York next season. It will be under the exclusive direction of Margaret Anglin, will be built by capital which has been put at her disposal and will be an actuality within a few months. It is understood that Miss Anglin's backers are from Chicago.

| Maintended to day. | Since 1871 Dr. McCollom had practised in Boston. During the civil war, from 1862 to 1865, he was hospital steward of the Thirtieth Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry, and from 1870 to 1871 he was assistant superintendent of the United States Marrine Hospital of Chelsea, Mass. He was stood that Miss Anglin's backers are from Chicago. There is, however, to be a new repertoire theatre opened in New York next season. It will be under the exfrom Chicago.

Miss Anglin has made a reputation as producer and her season of Shakespearean plays added greatly to her reputation. Then her judgment in the selectived, died of Bright's disease late last gin his tour under the management of Mr. Dippel at the close of the opera season in Chicago.

But Mr. Dippel has still higher aims.

course obscause the present situation makes it impossible for me to offer a tour to any of the actors I engage and thus I am not able to get the best. If I had a syndicate so that I could engage every act for twenty weeks it might be worth missions in this country, received the honorary degree of doctor of laws.

The faculty of the schools of arts and sciences awarded thirty-eight bachelor of arts, nine bachelor of the schools of arts.

The faculty weeks it might be worth my while to attempt to run a new vaude-ville theatre. The best performers are all given to the theatre which can offer the longest tour.

Then the Victoria Theatre has turned

"Then the Victoria Theatre has turned out a splendid investment. From that building I will under my present lease of the theatre for the pictures receive fred G. and George Vanderbilt, the two about $85,000 a year. So I feel I am going to come out all right on that even if I have lost so far $700,000 on the Lexington Avenue Opera House."

It is still to the topic of opera that Mr. Hammerstein always turns must it affects their wards the decree can be a special guardian for Arica Mr. Hammerstein always turns must be freed G. and George Vanderbilt, the two wife, Alice M. Fitch.

LEMUEL H. Babcock, who died on January 12 last, left $92,717. He put $50,000 in trust for his wife, Mary K. Babcock, and left $24,493 each to his year. Hammerstein always turns must be freed G. and George Vanderbilt, the two wife, Alice M. Fitch.

LEMUEL H. Babcock, who died on January 12 last, left $92,717. He put $50,000 in trust for his wife, Mary K. Babcock, and left $24,493 each to his year. He was a provided the state of $15,150 with the life of the will be with the state of $15,150 with the life of the will be wife. Alice M. Fitch.

LEMUEL H. Babcock, who died on January 12 last, left $92,717. He put $50,000 in trust for his wife, Mary K. Babcock, and left $24,493 each to his year. He put the put is the put of the will be a put of the will be leg, received his diploma when on Mr. Hammerstein always turns most won by Walter J. Black, and Paul J. the Metropolitan Opera Company how McCauley was awarded the St. John's to run their business," he said, "but I debating medal.

The Fordham Alumni Association announced the election of officers as follows: President, Dr. Cornelius J. Orben, '87, New York: vice-president, William A. Ferguson, '94, New York: secretary, Edward S. Brogan, '09, Jersey City: treasurer, Francis Dwight Dowley, '83, New York.

friends to believe that the gravity of the honor may lead to such a complete change in his character as to injure his value as the manager of a review to be called "Town Topics" or anything else. The cause of this uneasiness was the statement issued with much formality by Mr. Wayburn's agent of publicity. In that ukase he announces that under tage in "Her Awakening," by Marion in answer to the insistent demands of his Short, a playlet dealing with the aristo-cratic attitude foward poverty and its version of "Carmen." Mme. Calve was disastrous results. Irene Franklin of-fered a new repertoire of songs and obliged with several of her old ones. Others on the bill were Lyons and sing twice a day. In spite of the necessor, Hussey and Boyle, Ernest sity of disappointing several times in R. Ball, Melville and Higgins, Pirnikoff cities such as Boston, Washington and

THOMAS B. VAN BUREN.

Was Descendant of Founder of Sheffeld Scientific School.

Thomas Brodhead Van Buren, son of the late Gen. Thomas B. Van Buren, one time Minister to China, and a grandson of Joseph Earl Sheffield, whose family founded the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, died yesterday at his home, 55 West Seventy-first street. Death was caused by Bright's disease.

Mr. Van Buren was home at Convenien.

Mr. Van Buren was home at Convenien. Mr. Van Buren was born at Cornwall-on-Hudson in 1866. His boyhood was spent travelling with his parents in Europe and the Orient. Much of this time was spent in Japan, as Gen. Van Buren was United States Consul-General

DR. JOHN H. McCOLLOM.

Medical School.

Lieut.-Col. C. E. Woodruff.

tation. Then her judgment in the selection of actors always enables her to select her companies in a way that produces satisfactory results.

Miss Anglin succeeded in stealing another march on Mr. Barker. He was anxious to produce his Greek tragedies at the Greek Theatre in Berkeley, Cal. Miss Anglin, who is to give a season there, had made an agreement with the university authorities that no other Greek plays should be acted there this year.

Andreas Dippel has engaged Titta Ruffo for a concert tour next season and also hopes to have him appear in Boston and New York. Signor Ruffo is to begin his tour under the management of

But Mr. Dippel has still higher aims.
Art will have just as much of an influence in his affairs as business. He will county from 1891 to 1895 and deputy Calls Them Failures. ence in his affairs as business. He will have still graver responsibilities toward art than managing two companies in "The Lilac Domino." He expects to send from one city to another the gifted band of wrestlers now on view at the Manhattan Opera House.

"Just think of it," Mr. Dippel said yesterday in ecstatic contemplation of the profits and the lack of managerial cares which were to be his for the next sea.

Paul J. Carroll.

Calls Them Failures.

William A. Wirt, superintendent of the Methodist ministers of New York at their Monday meeting that the public school system of the country has never been more than a huge experiment and added: "Even at that it has been a lamentable failure."

"I see no reason why a public school" profits and the lack of managerial cares which were to be his for the next season. "No orchestra and chorus, no costumes or scenery and no prima donnas. Every star will carry his own costume, in his handbag, go to the theatre, finish his bout and then be ready to move on to the next town. That seems to me a really artistic enterprise."

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 14.—Paul J. S. Carroll, City Councilman, vice-president of the South Elizabeth Improvement Association, one of the founders and an official and stockholder of the Consumers Ioe and Cold Storage Company, died at St. Elizabeth's Hospital carly to-day, following a stroke of

The formal testimony required for the robate of the will of Alfred Gwynne anderbilt was given in the Surrogate's 'ourt vesterday, and it is expected that the decree of probate will be signed to-day by Surrogate Fowler. Another part of the proceeding yes terday was the qualifying by John B. Stanchfield as special guardian for Al-

CHURCH SHARES WITH HEIRS.

Methodist Episcopal institutions were makers of paper and woollen manufac turers' supplies, who died on October 23 last. He left a total estate of $273,036, of which his wife, Minnie D. Lyon, received $60,060. Willard F. Burcher, a stepson, got $10,000 and a number of nephews and nicces received $5,000 each, Four clerks employed five years or more Four clerks employed five years or more Four clerks employed five years or more got $500 each, five received $100 each and three got $50.

The Brooklyn Methodist Episcopal Home got $25,000 and half of the residue, making a total bequest of $34,973. The will gave $10,000 each to the Brooklyn and Long Island Church Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Seney Hospital in Brooklyn. The New York East Annual Conference received $5,000. MRS. AUGUST BELMONT ILL.

Brooklyn. The New York East Annua

Operated On for Appendicitis and

Eleanor Robson, yesterday underwent an operation in the General Memorial Hospital, 102 West 106th street, for ap-Orduna from Liveropool:

Gas large Abus Dr. Charles Abus Dr. Charles Dr. Charles Dr. Charles Dr. Charles Dr. Mass attended by the Cunarder Monoral Mon

MUSIC TEACHERS IN SESSION TO-DAY

The annual convention of the New York State Music Teachers Association,

ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS

Some of the Latest Names Placed on the Registers.

10 NEW STRAUS MILK DEPOTS

Will Help Bables and Children Through Summer Months.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS DENOUNCED.

"I see no reason why a public school system has a right to monopolize the time of children to the exclusion of other child welfare plans," he said.
"Indeed it has no such right, and its long assumption of the task to the cutting out of other and perhaps better agencies gives it no hold upon chil-dren that New York has any need to consider."

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

WILLIAM T. NISBET left an estate of $538,511. He gave an annuity of $9,000 to his wife, Mary Ann B. Nisbet, and the remainder of the estate in equal shares to his sons, William Browning Nisbet and Theodore Nisbet.

HERMAN ROSENTHAL, who died July 9, 1914, and was a member of Rosenthal Bros. & Co., waist manufacturers, of 44 West Twenty-eighth street, left $236,373. Miss Maggie A. Clark.

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 14.—Miss Maggie A. Clark, a teacher in the public schools of this city for forty-seven years, died at her home, 137 Pearl street, of heart disease, in her sixty-fifth year, to

PATRICK MURPHY, who died at Newry, Ireland, left $3,464 in New York and a total estate of $455,505. The estate went to friends, public institutions and churches guardians file an approval of the will as it affects their wards the decree can be signed.

CAPT. WILLIAM GOODWIN FITCH, U. S. A., retired, who died on October 27 last and was the father of the late Clyde Flich, left a gross estate of $24.619. His net estate of $13,165 went to his wife, Alice M. Fitch.

The witnesses examined yesterday were M. S. Barger of Newport, Roy C. Gasser of Anderson, counsel for the Vanderbilt estate, and E. L. Rossiter of Greenwich, Conn. They testified that Mr. Vanderbilt signed the will voluntarily and without restraint, that it was executed in their presence and that the testator was of sound mind.

CHURCH SHARES WITH HEIRS.

MARRIED.

ARNETT -POOR .- On Saturday, June 12, at East Hampton, L. L. by the Rev. Ernest M Stires, assisted by the Rev. Oscar F R. Treder, Mildred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harper Poor, to Alexander Yelverton Peyton Garnett.

DIED.

HEPBURN.—On Monday, June 24, 1918, at her home, West Islip, Babylon, Long Island, in the eighty-sixth year of her life, Elizabeth Sarah, wife of the late Henry Charles Hepburn and daughter of the late Solomon Eytinge and Mary funeral services at Christ Church, West Islip, on Westnesday morning, at 10

PARROW. - John Sparrow, aged 53 Funeral from "THE FUNERAL, CHURCH." 241 West Twenty-third Frank E. Campbell Building). Time OMLINSON.-Charles A., suddenly, at Milford, Conn., Monday, June 14

Services at St. Peter's Church, Milford, Conn., Wednesday, June 18, at 2 P. M.

UNDERTAKERS.

FRANK E.CAMPBELL 250 57